Parking at the Statehouse

Please park in the Statehouse Underground Parking Garage. Simply pull a ticket and park in any non-reserved spot. Before you return to your car, pay at one of the pay stations located near the entrance to the Statehouse. There are parking garage entrances on Broad, Third and State Streets (no High Street entrances).

From the Parking Garage to the Statehouse Atrium

Once you have parked your car please head to the green level in the parking garage. You'll then enter the Statehouse through a set of sliding glass doors. To find these doors please head to the middle of the green level. There is one set of sliding glass doors on both sides of the parking garage. Please find the sliding glass doors that say "Ohio Statehouse" above. Once you enter, go to the top of the stairs, past the Ohio Highway Patrol Officer (if you have a bag they will check it at this time) and then take the elevator to level "R." When you get off the elevator take the first door labeled "Rotunda Information desk," take a left after going through the door and you will enter the rotunda. When you enter the rotunda, go through the hallway to your right go down the stairs and then you will have reached the atrium. You may also ask any Ohio State Highway Patrol Trooper for directions.
